

Mission in Action ... ... in Deuteronomy

'Missional ethics' – the way in which the behavior (or ethics) of the individual believer and the believing community, bear witness to something of God's invisible qualities.

Why Deuteronomy?

Israel's call and identity

- Deuteronomy 4-6
- Deuteronomy 10

Israel's worship

- Deuteronomy 12, 14, 16, 26

Israel's law

- Deuteronomy 12-26
- A Baker's Seven!

Israel's ultimate need

- Deuteronomy 30

Mission in Action . . . . . . in the Major Prophets

Why the Prophets?

A reminder of the call

- Isa 1-2
- Jer 13
- Ezek 5, 20

The shape of failure (an anti-missional ethic)

- Isaiah 1-2
- Jer 2-3
- Ezek 18

The future hope

- Seven words of hope

The result

- Isa 2; 60; 66
- Jer 33
- Ezek 36-37

The shape of faithfulness

- Isa 56, 58
- Jer 31
- Ezek 18; 36

Mission in Action . . . . . . in Luke-Acts

Why Luke-Acts?

The King has come

- Luke 1-2

The King's manifesto

- Luke 3-4
- Luke 6

The King's commands

- Luke 10-19

The King's people and their impact

- Acts 1-2
- Acts 3-4
- Acts 5-6
- And beyond . . .

Mission in Action . . . . . . Today

Four Foundations of a Missional Ethic

- The missio-ethical author
  - A divine proposal

- The missio-ethical performance
  - An integration of word and deed

- The missio-ethical cast
  - The church as organism and organization

- The missio-ethical script
  - Justice
  - Charity
  - Worship