

Kewick Unconventional

ARTS IN WEEK 3

IF YOU ARE INTERESTED IN ENGAGING IN LIFE AND FAITH FROM THE PERSPECTIVE OF THE ARTS. HERE ARE SOME EVENTS WHICH YOU MIGHT ENJOY IN PARTICULAR.

EVENTS

LUNCHTIME CONCERT

1.15–2.15PM, Mon–Thu. ST JOHN'S
Bring your lunch, grab a drink from our Fair Trade Café, 'More Tea Vicar' and enjoy music and comedy while you eat. Please note, the Tuesday Concert has a suggested age guide of 14+. For more information see the Convention Reception Team.

NIGHT SHIFT

9.30–10.30PM, Sun–Thu. ST JOHN'S.
Join James Cary and Rachel Shannon for an hour of chat, comedy, guests, music, messing around and general theological tummy-tickling.

FIRE ETCHING WORKSHOP

3:00–4:00PM, Tue, Outdoors (WEATHER PERMITTING) OUTSIDE THE PENCIL MUSEUM
An opportunity to make art with KU artist-in-residence, Kaori Homma. Learn how to make a fire etching and hear more about how Kaori approaches questions of longing through her art. Limited places, please sign up at KU Merch Table at St John's. Tickets £5.

REMEMBER

7.30–9.00PM, Mon–Thu. ST JOHN'S
How do artists today approach the theme of longing through music, art, dance and poetry? Expect live art, performances, interviews and biblical reflections led by professional artists in the KU team.

- MON Longing And Lament
- TUE Longing For Love
- WED Longing For Community
- THU Longing For Heaven

DRAWING IN THE AFTERNOON

3:00–4:00PM, Wed, Outdoors
(WEATHER PERMITTING) OUTSIDE THE PENCIL MUSEUM
Join us for a drawing workshop in and around Keswick town led by artist Alastair Gordon. Whether you're a complete beginner or seasoned artist all are welcome. Limited places, please sign up at KU Merch Table at St John's. Tickets £5.

A TURBULENT PRIEST

9:30 - 10.45pm Tuesday at St John's
From the creators of A Monk's Tale and The God Particle comes a brand new show telling the amazing story of the murder of Thomas Becket. With jokes and songs, obviously. Bromance, bust-up and betrayals about faith, church and power. An ancient story for modern times. Tickets £5 or £15 for a family.

Contributors

ALLY GORDON is an artist, lecturer and founding director of Morphē Arts, a Christian charity that mentors early career artists. Exhibitions this year in Beijing, Berlin, London and Edinburgh.

ANNA NEWCOME has toured nationally and internationally over the past 10 years, with theatre shows ranging from classical to comedy. She is also a Presentation and Communications Coach and is Director of CTS Presentations.

ANNA NICHOLSON is an actress and award-winning character comedian. Join Anna and an array of brand new characters on a quest to be what everyone wants to be in 2019 – happy!

ADRIENNE CHAPLIN is a lecturer, researcher and writer working on the interface of art, theology and society. Originally from Amsterdam, she has taught in North America and Europe and lives in the UK.

EILIDH PATTERSON (pronounced I-Lee) is a warm, engaging performer of startling clarity. With songs that cut straight to the heart, delightfully accurate guitar playing and crystal clear vocals, Eilidh immediately connects with audiences everywhere.

Photo by John Smith

GARETH DAVIES-JONES is an accomplished singer-songwriter and thoughtful musical story-teller. The broad variety in Gareth's songs and the instruments he plays have captivated, engaged and inspired audiences around the UK.

JAMES CARY is an award-winning sitcom writer for BBC TV and Radio, who is also a husband, father and member of the General Synod of the Church of England.

KAORI HOMMA is a Japanese born artist and co-founder of Art Action UK. She is based in London and a graduate of both Tokyo University of Art and Design and Chelsea School of Art.

RACHEL SHANNON is a Presenter and Filmmaker living in London. Rachel presents live on Premier Christian Radio and runs her own freelance filmmaking business, previously having worked on BBC Songs of Praise.

STEPH MACLEOD is a singer/songwriter, worship leader and Mental Health Awareness campaigner. He returns to Keswick with songs from his new album Gold, inspired by his own journey of recovery.

STEWART HENDERSON is a poet, songwriter and broadcaster. His poetry appears in numerous anthologies. Esteemed, Sunday Times radio critic, Gillian Reynolds, says 'he understands the packed power of words, the importance of their use and measure'.

TYRONE ISAAC-STUART is a Sound & Movement Artist. With foundation in Jazz and Hip Hop, Tyrone fuses his influences to make layered conceptual work. Among performing primarily in dance theater, Tyrone is in the process of finishing his final album, "SICK".