Workshop for Elders and Lay Leaders

Leading WELL is a course to equip, encourage and nourish elders and those in lay leadership in churches who want to grow and develop in their calling as leaders, shepherds and servants of the local Church.

What you'll get out of it?

- You'll be able to understand and articulate what biblical leadership in the church context is.
- You'll be able to understand and read the context you find yourself in, and then apply the principles you've learned to this context and to others, too.
- You'll develop knowledge and skills in particular areas relevant to where you serve:
 - Communication
 - Working in a team
- You'll express a greater sense of personal awareness, with a view to being able to serve and work with others and know what leadership skills to invest in.
- You'll gain confidence to take the next steps in personal development.

Who's it with?

Emily Dean, Peter Nicoll, Adrian Reynolds, James Robson and Andrew Towner.
