

Keswick Ministries
TEACHING & TRAINING

Identity Workshop

28TH - 30TH NOVEMBER 2023

A workshop to equip delegates who are committed to speak clearly, truthfully, wisely, pastorally, compassionately, compellingly on matters of human identity primarily, but not restricted to, gender and sexuality.

Events often focus on one or two of the topics below. This workshop, with a practical and interactive approach, looks at:

- A Conceptual Framework: Historical / cultural trends of thinking to get here and where we are
- Theological - key biblical data and theological contours
- Psychological/scientific
- Legal / policy
- Pastoral – guidance and help with handling onversations; compassion and care.
- Church and discipleship – why the Christian message is good news, and how a church culture can compassionately respond, making that good news plausible.
- Practical listening and engaging

WHO IS IT FOR?

Pastors, youth or organisation leaders and other public-facing Christians committed to engaging.

WHO IS IT WITH?

A variety of speakers including Glynn Harrison, James Robson, Ros Clarke, Ed Shaw, David McKie, Helen Thorne, Danny Webster and more.

To find out more, visit the Teaching & Training hub at keswickministries.org/teaching-training-events/

Or email events@keswickministries.org

Alternatively you can call us on 017687 80075

Keswick Ministries
TEACHING & TRAINING

