Human - Being Broken

Ros Clarke: Seminar 2

HOW TO USE THIS RESOURCE

This seminar is the second in a series of four. You can watch the seminars on your own or with your church, small group, or friends. The questions/reflections below may help you discuss and work through how to apply what you've learnt to your own life. Start the video and then pause it when suggested to look at the question(s).

SEMINAR OUTLINE

This seminar examines how humanity is broken - physically, emotionally, relationally, and spiritually. The gospel message is that Jesus shared our brokenness so that he could restore us - not to a sinless state - but to an even more glorious, redeemed existence. While we look forward to that day, even now, in our brokenness, we can bring glory to God.

QUESTIONS

Watch the video and pause it at 23:23 minutes.

1. What are some of the ways you see sin affecting your emotions?
2. What would you say to a Christian who excused their sinful behaviour by saying, 'I have to be true to how I feel'?

Restart video at 23:23 minutes (<https://tinyurl.com/36yc8juu>) and watch until 32:56 minutes.

3. 'Sin is both a sign we are broken spiritually and the cause of our spiritual brokenness' (Ros Clarke). Share some practical examples which illustrate this truth.

4. In what ways can broken humanity still bring glory to God?

Restart video at 36:41 minutes (<https://tinyurl.com/2twtv79n>) and watch until the end.

5. Why is it significant that God will not restore us to a time before sin but to an even more glorious, redeemed existence?
6. How has Christ guaranteed that our redemption will be physical, emotional, relational and spiritual?

REFLECTION/PRAYER

- Are your emotions controlling you? Take action today: repent, apologize to those you have hurt, ask for God's help to deal better with sinful responses, start praying for the people who oppose you (Matthew 5:44).
- Imagine all the brokenness of your life mended like kintsugi pottery. Your physical suffering, strained relationships, emotional scars and sinfulness - visible but made glorious in the new creation. Thank God that he sees your scars and is redeeming them, and one day your mended brokenness will shine like gold with the glory of your redemption!
- Start every day this week by meditating on Revelation 7:13-17. Let these verses help you persevere and fill you with hope, knowing that the redemption we experience now, we will soon enjoy in full, because of Jesus, the Lamb of God.
- If you would like to think more about this topic you could read, 'Human' by Ros Clarke.
